

Six Questions to Ask Yourself Before Visiting a Funeral Home to Preplan

Before you go meet with a funeral director, ask yourself these six questions and think about your answers:

1. How do I want my body to be disposed of? Jewish burial, cremation, donation to science?
2. Do I want a tahara?
3. What organization would I want to support with memorial donations?
4. Who will carry out my wishes?
5. How will I ensure my wishes are carried out? In other words, how will I pay for this? Savings? Insurance? Credit Cards?
6. How will I be remembered? Loving? Patient? Kind? Generous? This is a legacy that we build day by day with our words and our deeds.

Please call me if I can be of further assistance to you regarding funeral planning, final expense insurance, and if you are interested in using a Certified Celebrant instead of a rabbi for a funeral. Thank you for attending my talk.
